Introduction

1. The first set of revised proposals for the programme and budgets 1994-1995 presented by the Director-General in document PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1 were submitted in conformity with conclusion 93/4 of the Programme and Budget Committee. That document provided details of the budgetary reductions introduced to bring the regular budget estimates below the ceiling recommended by the Programme and Budget Committee. Those revised regular budget proposals resulted in programme and budget estimates of $196,933,200 expressed at an exchange rate of US$1 = AS 12.90 as compared with the recommended ceiling of $197,451,500. The operational budget proposals contained in the revisions took account of the reduced estimated income level of $40,500,000 for the 1994-1995 biennium. Expenditures were projected at approximately $35,300,000 at an exchange rate of US$1 = AS 12.90.

2. In the revised proposals the Director-General indicated that the budget proposals would undergo a further revision with a view to strengthening the substantive capacity under the regular budget and effecting an essential reduction under the operational budget in the light of the most recent income estimates for 1994-1995 (PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1, para. 4). The present document provides information on the reallocation and reductions of resources under both the regular and operational budgets within the financial ceilings indicated above.

3. Subject to the approval of the Programme and Budget Committee and the Industrial Development Board, the proposals contained in PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1 and in the present addendum will be incorporated in a consolidated programme and budget document and submitted to the General Conference at its fifth session. The consolidated document will also contain those tables, figures and annexes in the original proposals (PBC.9/2/-IDB.11/2) that have not been included in the present document, due to the limited time which was available to effect the revisions.

Basic considerations

4. In formulating the proposals contained in the present addendum, the Director-General has endeavoured to preserve the technical cooperation capacity of the Organization within a reduced level of resources, particularly under the operational budget. In effecting reductions in the operational budget, the Director-General has identified the need for resource realignment in both the regular and operational budgets.

5. This resource realignment has incurred a transfer to the extent possible of regular budget resources from Departments providing administrative support to those engaged mainly in substantive activities. In addition, some substantive activities under the regular budget have experienced a reduction in resources, which in turn have been redeployed to other substantive areas. Although it has an impact on all Departments, the reduction in operational budget resources has been limited mainly to administrative support activities in both the Department of Administration and the substantive Departments. The reallocation of resources within the regular budget has permitted the maintenance of capacity while effecting reductions in the operational budget.

6. The revised proposals therefore endeavour to strike a balance between resources supporting technical programmes and administrative resources required to support those programmes. Most importantly, resource requirements under the regular and operational budgets have been kept within the recommended ceiling and expected income for the biennium 1994-1995.

I. REGULAR BUDGET

7. The revised regular budget estimates for the 1994-1995 biennium amount to a net figure of $196,924,600 which comprises gross expenditures of $229,905,200 and income (including cost reimbursement) of $32,980,600.

8. A comparison of the approved programme and budgets for 1992-1993 and the proposed revised regular budget for the biennium 1994-1995 is shown in the table on page 3. The figures are cited for expenditures (gross), income and net (expenditures less income).

9. The resource increases/(decreases) by major programme reflecting the latest revision are shown on page 3. The figures in parentheses under the net column represent negative resource growth.

10. The reallocation of resources by major programme and programme contained in the present document are summarized in the table on page 4. A detailed description of the adjustments in resource allocations is given in Annex I by object of expenditure at the subprogramme level.

III. ACTION REQUIRED OF THE COMMITTEE

14. The Committee may wish to consider adopting the following draft conclusion:

"The Programme and Budget Committee:

"(a) Considers the proposals of the Director-General for the programme of work, 1994-1995, and the corresponding total resource requirements by major programmes to be financed from the regular and operational budgets, as contained in document PBC.9/2-IDB.11/2 and revised in PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1 and Add.1;

"(b) Notes that the exchange rate applied in those estimates was US$1 = AS 12.90 for the regular and operational budgets and that those estimates would be adjusted in accordance with financial regulation 5.1, paragraph (d), prior to the end of the fifth session of the General Conference;

"(c) Notes that the inflation rates would also be updated prior to the end of the fifth session of the General Conference;

"(d) Recommends that the Industrial Development Board:

"1. Submit to the General Conference for consideration and approval the programme and budgets for 1994-1995 as contained in documents PBC.9/2-IDB.11/2 and revised in PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1 and Add.1;

"2. Recommend to the General Conference the approval on the basis of an exchange rate of US$1 = AS 12.90 of gross appropriations in the amount of $229,905,200 for the regular budget of the Organization in 1994-1995 as reflected in the following table:

Annex I

REGULAR AND OPERATIONAL BUDGET RESOURCE REALLOCATIONS AND REDUCTIONS

MAJOR PROGRAMME 100: POLICY-MAKING ORGANS, EXTERNAL RELATIONS, PUBLIC INFORMATION, LANGUAGE AND DOCUMENTATION SERVICES

Regular budget

Total net reduction: $983,100

1. The resource reductions introduced under this major programme include some cost-shared posts, temporary assistance and non-staff costs related to the joint conference services with UNOV (language and documentation services). The United Nations has given notice that it intends to terminate, as of 1996, the current joint conference arrangements with UNIDO. Ongoing discussions are being held between representatives of UNIDO and the United Nations which could result in a change in the administration and cost-sharing arrangements for the service before 1996. However, any changes in the present arrangements would be made without additional costs to UNIDO and within the net budgeted resources for the 1994-1995 biennium.

Staff (net decrease $569,700)

2. Staff resources under this major programme have been reduced by $958,800 in gross terms. The main thrust in the major programme has been to reduce staff costs by deleting posts. Two reclassified P-3 translator posts (Russian and Chinese) have been reduced in subprogramme 141, Translation, and one P-2 post in subprogramme 142, Editorial Control and Publications. One P-4 post in Editorial Control and Publications has been redeployed to subprogramme 353, Industrial Development Fund Mobilization and Funds Management, while a General Service post has been reduced in the printing unit of the same subprogramme. All these reductions - which yield net savings of $364,900 - will be offset to the extent possible by increasing productivity still further, although a certain diminution of services in terms of translation, editing and graphic presentation will be inevitable.

3. Improvement in administrative procedures and staff productivity will also help to offset the reductions ($204,800) proposed in the Office of the Deputy Director-General and the UNIDO Office at New York, one General Service post in each instance.

Travel ($22,000)

4. It is proposed to reduce staff travel costs by $7,000 in programme 130, External Relations, by $5,000 in programme 140, Language and Documentation, and by $10,000 in programme 120, Office of the Deputy Director-General. The savings will be secured by coordinating travel schedules more closely.

Other ($391,400)

5. Temporary assistance for meetings has been reduced by $252,400 under subprogramme 112, General Conference ($20,000) subprogramme 113, Industrial Development Board ($173,000) and subprogramme 141, Translation ($59,400). General temporary assistance has been reduced by $15,000 in programme 110, Policy-making Organs, while overtime has been reduced by $2,000 in programme 140, Languages and Documentation.

6. Other miscellaneous reductions are: external printing ($15,000) in programme 150, Public Relations and Information; public information services ($7,400), supplies and materials ($2,500) in subprogramme 112, General Conference; rental and maintenance of reproduction equipment ($25,000) in subprogramme 142, Editorial Control and Publications; communications ($19,000) in subprogramme 132, UNIDO Office at New York ($11,000) and subprogramme 133, UNIDO Office at Geneva ($8,000); contributions to joint printing ($45,100) in subprogrammes 112, General Conference ($25,000) and 113, Industrial Development Board ($20,100); and contributions to joint activities provided by the United Nations Information Service in New York ($8,000) in programme 150, Public Relations and Information.

Operational budget

Total reduction: $53,500

EDP ($53,500)

7. Of the reduced estimates for EDP non-staff costs of $670,000 as described in paragraph 34, an amount of $53,500 or 8 per cent relates to major programme 100.

MAJOR PROGRAMME 200: GENERAL MANAGEMENT

Operational budget

Total reductions: $5,300

EDP ($5,300)

8. Of the reduced estimates for EDP non-staff costs of $670,000 as described in paragraph 34, an amount of $5,300 or 0.8 per cent relates to major programme 200.

MAJOR PROGRAMME 300: PROGRAMME AND PROJECT DEVELOPMENT

Regular budget

Total increase: $551,000

Staff $551,000

9. This major programme has increased its regular budget resource allocations by converting from the operational budget one P-4 post in subprogramme 337, Office of the Director, and one P-3 post in subprogramme 353, Industrial Development Fund Mobilization and Funds Management. These conversions, which total $358,400, have been complemented by redeploying one P-4 post from subprogramme 142, Editorial Control and Publications, to subprogramme 353, Industrial Development Fund Mobilization and Funds Management, the increase of $192,600 being offset by the abolition of a P-4 operational budget in the same subprogramme (see below). By balancing resources in this manner, these post increments have no programmatic implications.

Operational budget

Total reduction: 1,678,900

Staff ($1,548,800)

10. In order to keep the programmatic implications to a minimum, the post reductions proposed in this major programme have been focused on posts that have been vacant for an extended period of time following the changes due to the support cost successor arrangements, as well as on posts where functions have been streamlined or appropriate staffing can be secured through redeployment. Five General Service-level posts have been thus abolished, thereby reducing operational budget resources by $512,000: one post each in subprogramme 312, Programme and Project Appraisal, subprogramme 322, Integration of Women in Industrial Development, subprogramme 323, Integrated Programme Support, subprogramme 324, Environment Coordination, and subprogramme 336, Field Representation and Coordination. Three Professional-level posts are also proposed for abolition, thus yielding savings of $485,800: one P-4 in subprogramme 333, Asia and the Pacific, one P-2 in subprogramme 323, Integrated Programme Support, and one P-3 in subprogramme 343, Industrial Statistics and Sectoral Surveys.

11. Two other Professional-level posts, one P-3 and one P-4 post, have been converted to the regular budget in subprogrammes 353, and 337 respectively, thus yielding savings of $358,400, while a further P-4 post has been abolished under subprogramme 353, Industrial Development Fund Mobilization and Funds Management, reducing operational budget resources by another $192,600. This latter reduction bears no programmatic implication as a regular budget P-4 post has been redeployed from subprogramme 142, Editorial Control and Publications, to offset the loss.

EDP ($130,100)

12. Of the reduced estimate for EDP non-staff costs of $670,000 as described in paragraph 34, an amount of $130,100 or 19.4 per cent relates to major programme 300.

MAJOR PROGRAMME 400: INDUSTRIAL PROMOTION, CONSULTATIONS AND TECHNOLOGY

Regular budget

Total increase: $121,400

Staff $121,400

13. The increase of $121,400 in this major programme results from the conversion from the operational budget of one P-4 post ($192,600) and one General Service post ($102,400) in subprogramme 443, Technology Promotion, one General Service post ($102,400) in subprogramme 424, Office of the Director, Industrial Investment Division, one General Service post ($102,400) in subprogramme 421, Industrial Investment Programme and two General Service posts ($204,800) in subprogramme 441, Industrial and Technological Information, offset by cancelling posts in programme 430, System of Consultations, a programme closely related to the programme instrument, policy forums. These reductions ($455,800) reflect the lower relative priority attached to this activity among the programme instruments of the Organization as evidenced by the distribution of regular and operational budget resources over the past two bienniums. One P-5 post and one General Service post have been cancelled in subprogramme 435, Office of the Director, and one P-2 post in subprogramme 433, Process Industries. That reduction will necessitate combining two consultations and merging the preparatory work related thereto. The meetings in question are: the regional consultation on the iron and steel industry in Africa and the consultation on environmental management/cleaner technologies in the metallurgical industry.

14. One P-2 post ($127,400) has also been cancelled in subprogramme 441, Industrial and Technological Information. The programmatic implications of that reduction will be the abandonment or reduction of certain programmed activities such as the preparation of information packages, directories, features, articles and news releases, as well as a merger of some of the special studies in selected areas of technology as part of the Technology Trends series.

Operational budget

Total reduction: $1,276,700

Staff ($1,033,000)

15. Staff resources have been reduced by one P-5 and one General Service post, both from subprogramme 435, Office of the Director in the System of Consultations. In addition, one P-4 and five General Service posts have been transferred from the operational budget. The programmatic implications of this reduction contained with the staff resources under the regular budget are described in paragraph 13 above.

Consultants ($113,700)

16. Of the overall reduction of $113,700, programme 420, Industrial Investment, accounts for $44,200, with a corresponding reduction in the scope of consultancy services required by subprogramme 421, Industrial Investment Programmes ($40,700) and by subprogramme 423, Feasibility Studies ($3,500). Programme 440, Technology Development and Promotion, accounts for $69,500, necessitating a reduction in the scope of various consultancy services for the programme as a whole and the cancellation of certain outputs in subprogramme 443, Technology Promotion, viz. promotional services related to technology incubators and parks, a study on technological spin-offs in marine industrial technology, and studies on the reactivation of UNIDO publications on appropriate technologies, as well as documentation for a seminar on quality control and standardization in appropriate technology products.

Travel ($87,700)

17. Travel resources have been reduced in subprogramme 423, Feasibility Studies ($36,600) and in various subprogrammes in programme 440, Technology Development and Promotion ($51,100). In the first instance, travel related to the identification of additional training needs in the field of project preparation and appraisal will be reduced, and in the second instance travel curtailments will relate to the promotion of INTIB network activities, TIES meetings and other promotional activities.

EDP ($42,300)

18. Of the reduced estimate for EDP non-staff costs of $670,000 as described in paragraph 34, an amount of $42,300 or 6.3 per cent relates to major programme 400.

MAJOR PROGRAMME 500: INDUSTRIAL OPERATIONS

Regular budget

Total increase: $515,400

Staff $515,400

19. This major programme has increased its regular budget resource allocations by $515,400 by converting from the operational budget one P-5 post each in subprogramme 525, Office of the Director, Industrial Operations Technology, and in subprogramme 541, Industrial Human Resource Development, and one P-3 post in subprogramme 531, Industrial Strategies and Policies, which has been offset by the cancellation of the previously proposed conversion of one General Service post to the regular budget in subprogramme 513, Direction and Management.

Operational budget

Total reduction: $1,642,200

Staff ($1,494,800)

20. The marked post reductions proposed in this major programme, nine General Service posts, yielding savings of ($979,400) have been focused primarily on: (a) identified vacant posts; (b) posts with incumbents due to retire; (c) posts with administrative functions and (d) activities that could be rationalized on the basis of future needs and increased efficiencies. The General Service posts to be abolished are: one post in subprogramme 532, Institutional Infrastructure; one post in subprogramme 531, Industrial Strategies and Policies; two posts in subprogramme 522, Chemical Industries; one post in subprogramme 542, Project Personnel Recruitment and Administrative Service; one post in subprogramme 524, Engineering Industries; one post in subprogramme 534, Office of the Director; one post in subprogramme 525, Office of the Director and one principal level post in subprogramme 541, Industrial Human Resource Development.

21. A further reduction of $515,400 has been achieved by converting two P-5 posts and one P-3, which have been offset by the cancellation of the previously proposed conversion of one General Service post to the regular budget as described in paragraph 19 above.

EDP ($147,400)

22. Of the reduced estimate for EDP non-staff costs of $670,000 as described in paragraph 34, an amount of $147,400 or 22.0 per cent relates to major programme 500.

MAJOR PROGRAMME 700: VIENNA INTERNATIONAL CENTRE (VIC)-RELATED SERVICES

Regular budget

Total net reduction: $681,700

23. Resources under this major programme have been reduced by $2,157,000 in gross terms. Since this is a cost-shared activity, net savings accruing to UNIDO will be $681,700. These savings have been achieved by reducing costs related to the repair and maintenance of premises, supplies and materials, cleaning and utilities.

24. Net reductions under the repair and maintenance of premises ($186,500) will emanate from reducing the scope of the programmes for carpet laying and cleaning. Utility costs will be reduced by $474,000 as a result of the introduction of new procedures to effect savings in energy consumption, mainly related to air conditioning and heating. Miscellaneous supplies and materials such as stationery and uniforms have been reduced, yielding savings of $21,200.

25. Of the resource reductions achieved under this major programme, $477,000 has been retained in the Department of Administration and $204,700 has been reallocated to the Department of Industrial Promotion, Consultations and Technology to strengthen the regular budget resources of that Department.

MAJOR PROGRAMME 800: ADMINISTRATION

Regular budget

Total increase $477,000

26. Part of the reductions achieved in the non-staff components under major programme 700 have been retained in the Department of Administration under major programme 800. The reallocation of resources between those two major programmes will permit the maintenance of a core capacity of staffing in the Department, which has experienced a substantial reduction in operational budget resources.

Staff $512,000

27. The reallocation of non-staff costs from major programme 700 has been utilized to retain four General Service posts in subprogramme 833, Accounts and Payments ($409,600) and one General Service post in subprogramme 834, Treasury ($102,400). These posts are essential to meet statutory requirements and to provide support to substantive activities.

Other ($35,000)

28. Resource reductions under subprogramme 844, Office of the Director, General Services, amount to $35,000. These will be achieved through more stringent control of communications costs ($25,000) and economies in cleaning ($10,000).

Operational budget

Total reduction: $1,903,000

Staff ($1,611,600)

29. The proposal to transfer a P-4 post from subprogramme 841, Purchase, to subprogramme 823, Staff Development and Training, has been withdrawn. Two P-3 posts in subprogramme 841, Purchase, have been abolished, while one P-2 post has been redeployed from subprogramme 842, Contracts, to subprogramme 841, Purchase.

30. Two General Service posts have been transferred from subprogramme 843, Other General Services, to subprogramme 841, Purchase, to offset in part the abolition of three General Service posts in that subprogramme. These deletions reflect the reduced activity related to technical cooperation support in the Division of General Services.

31. Notwithstanding the critical need for staff to support the development of systems in the Management Information Services Division, the requirement that costs be reduced in the operational budget has necessitated the abolition of one P-4 post in subprogramme 853, Applications Services, and one P-3 post in subprogramme 852, Computing Information Centre. Every attempt will be made to meet the demands of users within the Organization through improved work procedures and concentration on highest priority programmes. The extent of reductions noted in document IDB.11/2/Rev.1 and those presented in this document will permit only basic maintenance of present systems. Development programme activity will necessarily be deferred until the 1996-1997 biennium.

32. One General Service post was transferred to subprogramme 833, Accounts and Payments, from subprogramme 832, Financial Management of Technical Cooperation, to offset the abolition of one post in the subprogramme. Five General Service posts have been deleted from the operational budget: four posts in subprogramme 833, Accounts and Payments and one post in subprogramme 834.

EDP ($291,400)

33. Of the reduced estimate for EDP non-staff costs of $670,000, as described below in paragraph 34, an amount of $291,400 or 43.5 per cent relates to major programme 800. The reductions are shown under subprogramme 854, Office of the Director, Management Information Services Division.

NOTE ON ELECTRONIC DATA-PROCESSING

34. The EDP programme for the Organization as a whole which is administered under the Department of Administration has been further reduced under the operational budget from the levels noted in document PBC.9/2/Rev.1-IDB.11/2/Rev.1 by a total of $1,028,400, representing staff costs of $358,400 and non-staff costs of $670,000. The major non-staff cost reductions are anticipated in the areas of facilities management, mainframe cabling, software and supplies. These non-staff reductions have been made under the user Departments in accordance with the cost-sharing formula shown in document PBC.9/2-IDB.11/2, paragraph 68. Details of the staff reductions are shown under the Department of Administration.
